Five teams from West Virginia competed in the National Land Judging and Homesite Evaluation Contest in Oklahoma City on May 2, 2019. Here were the placings:

4-H TEAM

Monroe County 4-H: Brian Wickline (coach).

The team WON the 4-H Homesite Evaluation Contest and tied for 1st for 4-H Land Judging (came in 2nd on tie-breaker). Gavin Taylor was the TOP SCORING individual in Land and 3rd in Homesite. Alexander Chernauskas was 10th in Land and 6th in Homesite, and Seth Goodman was the other team member. Excellent!

FFA TEAMS

Tyler County FFA: Leon Ammons and Annie Erwin (coach).

The team WON the FFA Land Judging Contest and placed 4th in Homesite Evaluation. Madison Craven was the TOP SCORING individual in the nation in Land and 7th in Homesite. The other team members were Megan Vandruff, Nick Spencer, and Creed Ammons.

Pine Grove FFA: Adam Weekley and JD Morris (coaches).

The team placed 6th in FFA Land Judging and was 7th in Homesite Evaluation. Rachel Bates was 9th in Homesite, Makayla Floyd was 11th in Land, and the other members were Tommy Shannon and Savannah Tedrow.

Liberty County FFA: Zach Tennant (coach).

The team placed 13th in Land Judging and 20th in Homesite Evaluation. Ben Sturtevant, Jacob Southern, Connor Wickline and Nick Paugher were the team members.

Taylor County FFA: Steve Tennant (coach).

The team placed 22nd in Land Judging and 17th in Homesite Evaluation. Team members were Trevor Swiger, Kolt Conner, Isaiah Stottlemeyer, and Gage Colebank.

Congratulations to all participants. I am very proud of the students and their coaches for the hard work and training. For full results, <https://www.judgingcard.com/Results/Events.aspx?ID=11378>
